Perfectly Dosed is the leader in hemp emulsions for consumer products. Our emulsions are accessible, affordable ingredients for emerging and leading brands alike. We produce using high pressure homogenization, today's industry standard for CPG. Our best-in-class infrastructure means we're the partner you can scale with. We're in this for the long haul, just like you.

Nobody is more Perfectly positioned to do this than we are.

We're more than just an ingredient vendor.

We're here to help scale your business and offer expertise wherever it's helpful.

We've tested our emulsions in thousands of environments so we can help you design your products for stability, scalability, and differentiation.

Access our network of trusted partners so you spend less time finding suppliers, labs, cans and co-packers, and more time executing.

Use our in-house lab for compatibility and stability testing, and access our dozens of guides to educate your team and supply chain.
